This April and May, we are creating a brighter vision for foster care.

At SOS Children's Villages Illinois, we are committed to the work of preventing child abuse and family separation, supporting siblings in foster care, and forging paths towards loving, forever families. Centered on the Village model of care, we are dedicated to providing programs, services, and advocacy year-round for the unique needs of the communities we serve. During April and May specifically, we honor Child Abuse Prevention Month and Foster Care Awareness Month by amplifying our voices with the help of our friends and supporters. As Influencers, you provide the important work within your own networks, peer groups, and workplaces to not only educate others on what we do at SOS Illinois, but to further the conversation on the ever-transforming landscape of foster care. In this kit, you'll find important dates, statistics, and strategies that will be helpful as you join us in the #Voices4FosterCare Campaign in the months ahead. It is only with your words that we are able to tell our story, and it is only with your love that we are able to transform lives.

Thank you for your dedication to furthering our mission and helping us build the future of foster care. We could not do it without you.

about U.S. foster care

- There are over 450,000 children in foster care in the United States.
- Children enter foster care when a parent or parents are unable to provide the type of care that keeps a child healthy, happy, and thriving. The most common reason a child enters foster care is neglect.
- Though children can enter foster care at any age before 18, the average age of a child in U.S. foster care is eight.
- Each child in foster care has a "permanency plan," a plan created to help a child reach a forever home through reunification with biological parents, adoption, or independence.
- Though adoption through foster care is important, reunification with biological parents or family is often the permanency goal for a child in foster care.
- About 25% of children in foster care are currently eligible for adoption. Infants are far more likely to get adopted over other age groups, while teens are least likely to get adopted. Adopting older children and teens is always a great need.

HOST A DRIVE TO BENEFIT OUR COMMUNITIES

Child abuse and the foster care cycle can often be traced back to a lack of accessible resources. As we work to break the cycle of foster care, having necessary resources available can help strengthen families at-risk of separation or preparing for reunification. This April and May, consider hosting a drive at your workplace, local library, fitness center, or other communal location where friends and supporters can contribute. Necessary items include bed linens, professional clothing, children's books, and much more. Need ideas on wish lists for drives? Contact our Director of Advancement, Amy Kaczmarek, at akaczmarek@sosillinois.org.
